

SUMMER SCHOOL AT UCL /

Based in the heart of London, UCL is ranked in the top ten universities worldwide (QS World University Rankings 2017/18). Our academic specialisms cover most subjects, from the arts and social sciences to engineering and physical sciences, and our innovative focus on interdisciplinary study to examine global issues sets us apart.

The UCL Summer School gives you the chance to study in London for three or six weeks over the UK summer and gain credit towards your degree programme.
