Zhetysu University named after I. Zhansugurov invites you to participate in the International Scientific and Practical Conference "Mathematics Education in the Age of Digitalization and Artificial Intelligence", dedicated to the 70th birthday of Professor Yessengali Zheksembayevich Smagulov, Doctor of Pedagogical Sciences. The conference will take place on 27 November 2026.

Conference tracks:

1. Mathematics and Natural Sciences: Contemporary Methodology and Technologies in Education. Theory and methodology of teaching mathematics; continuity between secondary and higher education; training of mathematics, physics, and computer science teachers; STEM education; interdisciplinary integration; inclusive education; mathematics and science education in the digital environment.

2. Digital Learning Environment: Innovation, Artificial Intelligence, and Teaching Practice. Digital transformation of education; information and communication technologies (ICT); artificial intelligence and neural network technologies; teachers' digital competence; cybersecurity culture; e-learning and distance learning; development and use of digital educational resources.

The working languages of the conference will be Kazakh, Russian and English.

The conference offers in-person and online participation. Participation options include an oral presentation at a parallel session, a poster presentation, or attendance without a presentation. Presentations must report relevant research findings and demonstrate practical significance. To register, email a completed registration form and a paper for publication to zhu_fmf@zu.edu.kz by 25 October 2026, inclusive. Participants attending without a presentation should submit only the registration form. Paper formatting guidelines are provided below. Session times, the applicable time zone, venue and online joining instructions will be announced separately. The electronic proceedings will be sent to the authors at the email addresses provided in their registration forms.

Participation in the conference and publication of papers in the electronic proceedings are free of charge.

The Editorial Board reserves the right to reject submissions that:

- fall outside the conference themes or fail to meet the content and formatting requirements;
- are received after the deadline;

PAPER FORMATTING GUIDELINES

Dear authors, please submit a carefully edited manuscript that meets the following requirements.

Papers of 3–5 pages must be submitted in MS Word (.docx) format. The filename must include the surnames and initials of all authors. For example:

Moldabayeva M. M., Shatyrbayeva G. Zh.docx

Papers in Kazakh, Russian or English are accepted. Use Times New Roman, 12 pt, with single line spacing. Margins: left and top – 2.5 cm; right and bottom – 2 cm. First-line paragraph indent: 1.25 cm. Main text alignment: justified. Place a Universal Decimal Classification (UDC) code appropriate to the paper's subject in the upper-left corner. The paper title should appear once, centered, in bold uppercase letters. Center the authors' surnames and initials in bold below the title. For each author, provide their academic degree and title (if applicable), position or student status, full institutional affiliation, city, country and email address. Include abstracts in Kazakh, Russian and English, each no longer than 100 words, followed by no more than six keywords in the corresponding language. Begin the main text in a new paragraph. Figures and tables must be numbered and titled. Cite sources in square brackets in order of first citation: [1], [2]. Include a page number for direct quotations: [1, p. 35]. Provide complete references at the end of the paper; include URLs and access dates for online sources.

UDC [code appropriate to the paper's subject]
